

Lewis University Pharmaceutical Distribution Plan

Purpose

The purpose of medications will then be distributed to Corporate Groups Phase II participants - based on the level of plan activation by the WCHD and/or the WCEMA.

Dispensing medications in an emergency situation will have to be very fast, yet very efficient.

A public health emergency necessitating activation of Lewis

DIRECTION AND CONTROL

Upon activation of the PDP, the Provost, or alternate, shall be responsible for overall command and control of emergency operations related to the PDP. Incident management activities will be initiated and conducted using the principles

