CHARLES T. FLYER

www.linkedin.com/in/ctflyer"

chärlestflyer@lewisu.edu Tinley Park, IL

March 30, 20XX

Mr. Carlos Jackson Director of Human Resources Premier Marketing Services, Inc. Division of Creative Services 123 S. AugustineRd. Chicago, IL 60615

Dear Mr. Jackson

Using my creativity to help companipsomote products/services aimdrease sales is my top career goal. I believe that I am prepared to assist Premier Marketing Services in achieving thirdly request that you consider me for your Assistant Creative Marketing Associate vacancy which I saw listed on your Web site. I am especially interested in working at Premier Metring Services because your longstanding commitment to incorporating creativity and integrity in completing all projects. I am also interested in contributing to your new international marketing initiatives ll be graduating this May with a Backelor of Science in Marketing from Lewis University and will be available to start full time employment after May 15 I have enclosed my resume for your consideration.

Currently, I am employed patime as astudentemployeen the Marketing and Communations Department at Lewis University. This has given me-final exposure to working directly with a variety of customers, each presenting unique needs. I have been given the opportunity to assist the marketingstaff with creative projects such as paring brochures for multiple departments in a consistent design format to the unique requests of the customers.

My curriculum has included specialized courses in Advertising, Public Relations; terrelational Marketing. In my Advertising class, we were required to create an advertising campaign for a local businessas a class project created a campaign for a local spontemorabilia store. My project earned